Ingrid Christensen - Juror

Ingrid Christensen describes herself as an oil painter, instructor and complete paint nerd living in Calgary, Canada. First and foremost, she is a painter of light. Her work is an ongoing exploring of light's ability to elevate even the most mundane object into the glowing subject of a painting.

Ingrid is in demand as a workshop instructor both online and in person. She strives to inspire her students with the wonder of the craft of painting., making them look beyond the surface of their art to its rich, inner depth - to the potential for painting to act as communication and self discovery.
